Participation in our programs, workshops, referrals, or services does not guarantee:

- Employment
- Housing placement
- Financial assistance
- Childcare placement
- Government benefits
- Program acceptance
- Scholarships or funding
- Specific outcomes or results

A Better Way 26 provides guidance, educational support, public resource information, and community assistance only.

3. Eligibility

Program participation may require applicants to:

- Complete intake forms
- Provide accurate information
- Meet program qualifications
- Follow community standards
- Participate respectfully and honestly

A Better Way 26 reserves the right to deny, suspend, or terminate participation for violations of these terms or inappropriate conduct.

4. Community Standards

All participants, volunteers, members, and website users agree to:

- Treat others respectfully
- Avoid harassment, threats, or discrimination
- Refrain from fraudulent activity
- Avoid misuse of resources or services
- Provide truthful information
- Follow applicable laws and regulations

A Better Way 26 reserves the right to remove individuals who violate these standards.

5. Donations & Contributions

Community contributions and donations support organizational programs and operations.

Unless otherwise stated in writing:

- Donations are voluntary
- Donations are non-refundable
- Contributions do not guarantee services or special treatment

A Better Way 26 will make reasonable efforts to use donated funds in support of its charitable mission.

6. Memberships & Community Contributions

Some programs or community memberships may request voluntary financial contributions to help sustain services.

No qualified individual will be denied access to basic services due solely to inability to contribute financially.
